

The Brownie Experience

Brownie

A Brownie is a girl between ages 7 and 12 or until she leaves primary school and who has taken the Brownie Promise.

Brownie Pack

A Brownie Pack should consist of not less than two Sixes under a Guider, who is called the Brownie Leader and another who is the Assistant Brownie Leader. The Assistant Brownie Leader should be capable of administering the Pack in the absence of the Brownie Leader.

Brownie Guider

- (a) Brownie Leader / Assistant Brownie Leader: At least 21 years old.
- (b) Has attended and completed the Basic Training as laid down by the Training Committee.

The Brownie Leader has a free hand in the management of her Pack and training of her Brownies provided that she adheres to the Policy, Organisation and Rules of GGS. On completion of her BTC, the Brownie Leader may test her Brownies for the Golden Badge, Golden Bar and Golden Hand Tests. On receipt of her Permanent Warrant, a Brownie Leader may enrol her Brownies.

Brownie Six

The Brownie Six consists of six Brownies, including the Sixer and the Second and assumes the name of Elf, Fairy, Gnome, Imp, Pixie or Sprite.

Elf

Fairy

Gnome

Imp

Sprite

Brownie Sixer and Second

- a. The Brownie Sixer

A Sixer is appointed by the Brownie Leader to take charge of the Six. A Sixer should be a Golden Bar Brownie.

- b. The Brownie Second

A Second is appointed by the Brownie Leader. She takes the place of the Sixer when the latter is absent.

Achievement Badges

The Golden Bar

In order to qualify for the Golden Bar, she needs to complete five modules, one under each point.

The Golden Hand

She will qualify for the Golden Hand after she has completed the remaining seven modules. After she has gained the Golden Hand Badge, she may take the Chief Commissioner's Badge.

The Chief
Commissioner's Badge

Please check the GGS Website for updated details about the Chief
Commissioner's Badge Award.

Brownie Promise:

I promise to do my best

To do my duty to God

To serve my country and help other people and

To keep the Brownie Law

Brownie Law:

1. A Brownie obeys and respects her elders.
2. A Brownie thinks of others before herself.
3. A Brownie tells the truth.
4. A Brownie is neat and tidy.
5. A Brownie is thrifty.
6. A Brownie plays and works cheerfully.
